

In March, Tate Consultancy Services welcomed a diverse group of 58 new recruits from various colleges across West Bengal. The new hires, hailing from prestigious institutions such as Jadavpur University, University of Calcutta, and Indian Institute of Technology Kharagpur, bring a wide range of skills and expertise to the company. The recruitment drive aimed to strengthen Tate Consultancy Services' workforce and foster innovation by tapping into the talented pool of young professionals from the region. The new recruits will undergo a comprehensive training program to familiarize themselves with the company's processes, culture, and client-centric approach before being assigned to various projects and departments within the organization.
